#281 - The Biggest Mishap of the Oscar History -

The 89th Academy Awards ceremony ended with a chaos after an error in announcement of the recipient during the center piece ceremony, the Best Picture Awards. One of the main nominee; the musical film “La La Land”, which has already won six Academy Awards including; the Best Actress and the Best Director awards, was announced at first, but it was abruptly corrected to “Moonlight”, which depicts a sexual minority gay African American boy’s upbringing amidst of poverty and his agony after being abandoned by his mother. They say the mishap was due to a mere human error.

However, after all the casts and producers of the “La La Land” celebrating on the stage, the site has become chaotic. Advertently being called up on the stage, ended up being “out of place” so to speak, the “La La Land” producer Jordan Horowitz took a surprising action. He picked a card of the Best Picture Award recipient from the hands of stunned presenter, and he flashed the card to the audiences saying “No, that was a mistake. ‘Moon light’, you guys won the best picture. This is not a joke.” And Horowitz blessed their victory by commenting; “I am very proud of handing this Oscar trophy to my friends of ‘Moonlight’.”

But there is even more. Likewise, the starting actress of “La La Land”; Emma Stone, also applauded “Moonlight” as if she was about to shout saying; “I f***ing loved ‘Moonlight’. God, I love ‘Moonlight’ so much! I’m so excited for ‘Moonlight’! ... I think it is one of the best movies of all times! “The world concurred. Today in the US, we always hear conflicting news, but the message that cherishes each other; regardless of either enemies or allies, has truly shook the conscience of many who were present. The Bible teaches

“Through the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked it is destroyed.
Whoever derides their neighbor has no sense, but the one who has understanding holds their tongue.” Proverbs 11:11-12

The one who truly implemented this deed tirelessly and flawlessly was Christ Himself. He has never been shown any rage against even to those who nailed him on the cross. Today we are living in this society where Jeering, rage, unkind jokes, and booing dominates our actions and words. May all of us will follow Christ and bless each other, who surrounds us by prevailing over those malicious deeds by the help of Christ’s strength.
